Whitehall, June 10.

A Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was received on Sunday last, from His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

SIR, Tournay, June 6, 1794.

I Have the Pleaſure to inform you, that, on the 3d Inſtant, the Combined Army, under the Command of the Hereditary Prince of Orange, attacked the Enemy, who was poſted at Fontaine l'Eveque, in order to cover a Part of their Forces, which was beſieging Charleroi, and compelled them to raiſe the Siege and return acroſs the Sambre, where they now remain.

I am, &c.

FREDERICK.

Right Hon. Henry Dundas, &c. &c. &c.

Whitehall, June 10.

THE Diſpatch, of which the following is a Copy, was received on Sunday laſt from Admiral Lord Hood, by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

SIR, Victory, off Baſtia, May 24, 1794.

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, that the Town and Citadel of Baſtia, with the ſeveral Poſts upon the Heights, ſurrendered to the Arms of His Majeſty on the 22d. On the 19th I received a Meſſage, that the Garriſon was deſirous of capitulating upon honorable Terms; in conſequence of which I ſent the incloſed Note on Shore. This brought on Board the Victory Three Officers, who informed me that Gentili, the Commandant, would aſſemble the Officers of the ſeveral Corps, and of the Municipality, if a Truce took Place, which I agreed to, a little before Sun-ſet. The next Day I received a Note from Gentili, which I alſo incloſe, and ſent Captain Young on Shore, on the Morning of the 21ſt, who ſoon returned to the Victory, with Two Officers and Two of the Adminiſtrative Bodies, which, with Vice-Admiral Goodall, Captain Young, Captain Inglefield, and my Secretary, Mr. M'Arthur, ſettled the Articles of Capitulation, which were ſigned the following Morning, when His Majeſty's Troops took Poſſeſſion of all the Poſts above the Town, the Troops in each retiring to the Citadel, from whence they marched to the Mole Head, where they grounded their Arms, and were embarked. You will receive herewith the Articles of Capitulation, which I hope His Majeſty will approve.

I am unable to give due Praiſe to the unremitting Zeal, Exertion and judicious Conduct of Lieutenant-Colonel Villettes, who had the Honor of commanding His Majeſty's Troops; never was either more conſpicuous. Major Brereton, and every Officer and Soldier under the Lieutenant-Colonel's Orders, are juſtly entitled to my warmeſt Acknowledgments; their perſevering Ardour and Deſire to diſtinguiſh themſelves cannot be too highly ſpoken of, and which it will be my Pride to remember to the lateſt Period of my Life.

Captain Nelſon, of His Majeſty s Ship Agamemnon, who had the Command and Directions of the Seamen, in landing the Guns, Mortars and Stores; and Captain Hunt, who commanded at the Batteries, very ably aſſiſted by Captain Buller and Captain Serocold, and the Lieutenants Gore, Hotham, Stiles, Andrews and Briſbane, have an equal Claim to my Gratitude, as the Seamen under their Management worked the Guns with great Judgment and Alacrity. Never was an higher Spirit or greater Perſeverance exhibited, and I am happy to ſay, that no other Contention was at any Time known, than who ſhould be moſt forward and indefatigable for promoting His Majeſty's Service; for, although the Difficulties they had had to ſtruggle with were many and various, the perfect Harmony and good Humour that univerſally prevailed throughout the Siege overcame them all.

I cannot but expreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, the meritorious Conduct of Captain Duncan and Lieutenant Alexander Duncan, of the Royal Artillery, and Lieutenant De Butts, of the Royal Engineers; but my Obligation is particularly great to Captain Duncan, as more Zeal, Ability and Judgment was never ſhewn by any Officer than were diſplayed by him; and I take the Liberty of mentioning him as an Officer highly entitled to His Majeſty's Notice.

I feel myſelf very much indebted for the Vigilance and Attention of Captain Wolſeley, of the Imperieuſe, and of Captain Hallowell, who became a Volunteer wherever he could be uſeful, after being ſuperſeded in the Command of the Courageux by Captain Waldegrave. The former kept a diligent Watch upon the Iſland of Capraia, where the Enemy have Magazines of Proviſions and Stores, and the latter did the ſame, by guarding the Harbour's Mouth of Baſtia with Gun-Boats and Launches well armed, the whole of every Night, whilſt the ſmaller Boats were very judiciouſly placed in the Intervals between, and rather without the Ships (which were moored in a Creſcent juſt out of Reach of the Enemy's Guns) by Captain Young, of the Fortitude, the Center Ship, on Board of which every Boat aſſembled at Sun-ſet for Orders; and the Chearfulneſs with which the Officers and Men performed this nightly Duty is very much to be admired, and afforded me the moſt heartfelt Satisfaction and Pleaſure.

The very great and effectual Aſſiſtance I received from Vice-Admiral Goodall, Captain Inglefield and Captain Knight, as well as from every Captain and Officer of His Majeſty's Ships under my Command, have a juſt Claim to my moſt particular Thanks, not only in carrying into Execution my Orders afloat, but in attending to and ſupplying the Wants of the little Army on Shore: It is to the very cordial and decided Support alone I had the Honor to receive from the Whole, that the innumerable Difficulties we had to contend with were ſo happily ſurmounted.

Major Smith and Enſign Vigoureux, of the 25th Regiment, and Captain Radſdale and Lieutenant St. George of the 11th, not embarking with their reſpective Regiments, having Civil Employments on Shore; it is to their Honor I mention, that they relinquiſhed thoſe Employments, and joined their Corps, ſoon after the Troops were landed.

It is very much my Duty to inform you, that I am extremy obliged to General Petrecono, Mr. Frediani, and all the Officers of the Corſicans, ſerving with the Army, for their great Zeal, Ardour and Attention, in forwarding the Reduction of Baſtia by every Means in their Power, who were of infinite Service by preſerving good Order in the Troops.

I tranſmit an Account of the Loſs on the Part of His Majeſty, in Killed and Wounded, which, I am happy to ſay, is inconſiderable; but the Enemy ſuffered much, their Hoſpitals being full.

At the Commencement of the Siege, the Number of the Enemy bearing Arms was 3000.

By the firſt Ship that ſails for England, I ſhall have the Honor of ſending, to be laid at His Majeſty's Feet, the ſeveral Stand of Colours taken at Baſtia.

Captain Hunt, who was on Shore in the Command of the Batteries from the Hour the Troops landed to the Surrender of the Town, will be the Bearer of this Diſpatch, and can give any further Information you may wiſh to know reſpecting the Siege.

I have the Honor, &c.

HOOD.

Right Hon. Henry Dundas.

His Britannick Majeſty's Ship Victory, off Baſtia, May 19, 1794.

IN Conſideration of the very gallant Defence the Garriſon of Baſtia has made, and from the Principles of Humanity which ever govern Britiſh Officers, I am diſpoſed to give you Terms; and if you will ſend on Board Two or Three Officers, properly authorized to treat, I truſt a Capitulation will be ſoon ſettled, as honorable to the Inhabitants as can in any Reaſon be expected.

(Signed) HOOD.

To the Commanaant of the Garriſon and Mayor of the Town of Baſtia.

TRANSLATION.

Baſtia, the 2d Prereal, 2d Year of the French Republick, One and Indiviſible.

The General of Diviſion, Commander in Chief of the Army of the French Republick in Corſica, to Admiral Hood, Commander in Chief of the Squadron of the King of Great Britain, before Baſtia.

MY LORD,

IN conſequence of the Propoſal which you did me the Honour of making in your Diſpatch of the 18th May, (Old Style,) I have the Honour of ſending to you Two Adjutant Generals of the Army and Two Members of the Adminiſtrative Corps of this Town, who are commiſſioned to preſent to you the Plan of a Capitulation between the Garriſon and Inhabitants of Baſtia, and you, My Lord, in the Name of the King of Great Britain.

Theſe Four Commiſſioners, who equally poſſeſs my Confidence, and that of the Garriſon and of the Citizens, have Inſtructions to arrange, with you, the Settlement of all Matters relative to this Capitulation. I hope that you will be ſatisfied, and that they will enable you to fulfil the Views you have ſignified to me, of putting an End to the unavoidable Conſequences of the Calamities of War. Captain Young has had a long Conference with me: I was of Opinion that a reciprocal Underſtanding might cooperate in the Succeſs of the Negotiation which occupied our Attention, and I have requeſted him to acquaint you with my ingenuous and loyal Intentions.

Greeting or Health,

(Signed) GENTILI,
Commander in Chief.

Extract of a Letter from Francis Laforey, Eſq; Captain of His Majeſty's Ship Carysfort of 28 Guns, to Mr. Stephens, dated in Plymouth Sound, the 7th Inſtant.

ON the 29th of laſt Month, being in Latitude 46 deg. 38 min. North, Longitude 9 deg. 40 min. Weſt, His Majeſty's Ship fell in with, and, after an Action of an Hour and Fifteen Minutes, captured a French Frigate (late His Majeſty's Ship the Caſtor) commanded by Monſ. L'Huillier, mounting 32 Guns, and manned with 200 Men.

She had parted Company from the French Squadron on the 24th in Chace of a Dutch Brig, which ſhe had in Tow when we firſt diſcovered her, and which, upon our coming up, was enabled to effect her Eſcape.

I have the Satisfaction of reporting to their Lordſhips the uniform good Conduct of the Officers and Crew of His Majeſty's Ship I have the Honor to command; and I feel myſelf indebted to Lieutenants Worſely and Sayer for the ſpirited Example they ſet to a new Ship's Company.

Herewith I tranſmit a Return of the Loſs ſuſtained by His Majeſty's Ship in Killed and Wounded, with as accurate a one as we have been able to obtain of that of the Enemy.

Carysfort. 1 Seaman killed; 5 Seamen, 1 Marine, wounded.

Pity but your race were extirpated from the face of the creation—they are a diſgrace to human nature—a hord of Swindlers—but your obſtinacy ſhall avail nought—actions or indictments we are not to be intimidated by & if by this day ſen-night you do not afford us an opportunity of entering your Warehouſe, before midſummer day you ſhall behold your Warehouſe and the Goods therein an heap of aſhes and your claim on the Fire office ſhall be attached—have we got you now you thought no one as deep as yourſelf and your Lawyer—but you find the property can be got out of your hands & ſhould we even be foiled there you ſhall not long revel in the produce of your Swindle—if a well loaded piſtol or good tempered Steel can end your exiſtance now judge for yourſelf we are prepared and ſuch engines are at work as will defy diſcovery—men who delight in Blood and whoſe chief pleaſure is Villainy—ſuch are procured and ſuch ſhall act for us us
